Quail Season has Started

Quail season has started and for the next 6 months, Big Red Oak is the place to hunt quail, pheasant, and chukar.

The beautiful Georgia pines throughout the property make BRO the prime hunting experience in Middle Georgia.

Bring your own dogs or use the guided hunt services.

Hunt-your-own options are available with reservations. One-day dog training sessions are also available.

Check with Lisa today to book your hunting experience or schedule a time to let Mike help you with your dog.

MEMBERSHIP ADVANTAGES

Did you know that members get fishing and rifle range use. The fish are biting and deer are roaming across the county. Make sure your equipment is ready to go. Stock up on your clay card as well and get ready for the birds.

BRO is a Castellani Dealer

This month, Big Red Oak will get their first shipment of Castellani vests. We will be stocking Castellani vest for immediate purchase as well as continuing the special order process for customized Castellani products. Watch our Facebook and IG pages for more information this month.
