

APRIL 2024

Big Red Oak is the premier clay shooting and bird hunting venue in the southeast!

Quail Season has Ended

During the past Fall and Spring, Big Red Oak was honored to be chosen by many hunters, corporate groups, and families, to be their quail hunting venue. We would like to thank everyone for coming out, spending a part of their day with us, and enjoying the beauty of the property.

We appreciate the efforts of the entire BRO staff and all of the hunting guides that worked throughout the season. We also have a big thank you for the hundreds of dogs that played, ran, pointed, and retrieved birds at Big Red Oak.

We are looking forward to next year. Land preservation and preparation will begin in iJayn the next few weeks.

Youth SCTP In Full Swing

SCTP is a national youth shooting organization for middle, high, and college students. The Georgia group are leaders in the nation in both participation and achievement.

Recently, BRO hosted over 300 shooters for the SCTP Bonanza. The West Georgia Patriots represent BRO in SCTP.

The West Georgia Patriot Coaches appreciate the support of local businesses, BRO, and club members. If you see a youth shooter in a West Georgia Patriots vest or hat around the club, please provide some words of encouragement as they prepare for the season.

Plan now for Summer and Fall gatherings. BRO has excellent facilities for family reunions, weddings, corporate outings, and more.
