

Big Red Oak is the premier clay shooting and bird hunting venue in the southeast!

Fall Hunting Preview

Have you booked your Fall quail hunt yet?
It is only two months until the start of quail season at Big Red Oak. Have you booked your hunt yet?

Mike and staff at the plantation are working hard to prepare the property for a great hunting experience. The guides are getting the dogs ready, and the birds will be flying in October.

Deer Season Is Right Around the Corner

While still three months away, now is the time to call the club house and book your deer hunting dates for this year. We offer multiple packages with lodging and meals.

Firearms season opens October 21st. Dates will fill up quickly.

Tower Pheasant Hunts

To meet increasing demand for our tower pheasant hunts, Big Red Oak has secured birds for several public tower hunts this season. If you have never tried it, check it out this year. It's a great family activity. Lots of birds, lots of dogs, and lots of fun. Check future newsletters and social media for dates. Sign up quickly. Spaces are limited and fill up fast.
